

Dads are from Mars, Moms are from Venus: A Co-Parenting Discussion

- How much do we need to agree with each other in front of our kids?
- When is a united front absolutely essential, and when is it OK if we let the kids see us disagree?
- What do we do when we don't see eye-to-eye on how to handle something with our children?

This informal discussion will help parents know whether and when they need to be on the same page, in the same book, or just in the same library. The goal is to help you feel the freedom to do things differently from each other while still creating a unified philosophy and approach.
